Gospel Reading: John 20,19-31

Setting: Sunday and Jesus' appearance
 19 On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." 20 When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. 21 (Jesus) said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." 22 And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. 23 Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

The Doubting Thomas
 24 Thomas, called Didymus, one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. 25 So the other disciples said to him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nailmarks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe."

Commentary
 In this text, we must observe how things change when Jesus appears.
 In vv. 19-20, the disposition of the disciples changes from fear to joy. (They were afraid... they rejoiced...)
 In v. 21, Jesus repeats his greeting of peace and now he is sending them (in v. 22) to forgive or retain sins.
 Here there is a change from being away from the people (hiding) to being personally with the people effecting God's forgiveness (mission).
 The first to be notified of Jesus' resurrection and appearance is Thomas, but he is skeptic. For him, it is not so much to see is to believe, but to touch is to believe. Very demanding!
